

Partner with a firm that helps you deliver your tomorrow, today!

As a KPMG trainee, you get access to a variety of opportunities:

Access to new beginnings

Once you start working, we give you access to a cellphone, a laptop as well as Vitality benefits

Exposure to multinational clients

As a KPMG trainee, you get to work with prestigious multi-national clients across South Africa.

Global experience

Discover the world through our available international opportunities.

Global opportunities (GO)

As a KPMG trainee, you can apply for a short-term secondment to an overseas country during the third year of your articles.

Touch-base sessions

Look out for your recruiter on campus for these sessions. As a signed trainee, you get to interact with your recruiter to discuss any issues on an ongoing basis accompanied by tasty treats to keep you going.

Networking opportunities

Take advantage of opportunities to network with the brightest minds in the industry.

Driver's license assistance programme

Worried about how you're going to get to your clients? We've got you covered! Once you start your articles, we'll can assist you financially to obtain your driver's license.

Exclusive events

All signed students get access to big bang events at Sun City, Gold Reef City, office braais, lunches and so on.

Dean's List Recognition Awards

Are you an outstanding performer? We offer special awards to students achieving an academic average of 75% and above.

Bursaries

If you require financial assistance, reach out to us at any point during your studies and we'll assess whether you qualify for financial support.

Vacation Work

Vacation work opportunities are available during the June/July and December/ January vacation periods for all 1st year to CTA students.

CA Advisory Programme

You'll have the opportunity of covering two of the SAICA electives, this including Risk Management and Governance.